

THE FAMILY
POLICY COUNCIL OF WEST VIRGINIA

Advancing, Defending, and Equipping the families of West Virginia.

engage

A MONTHLY
OPPORTUNITY TO GET INVOLVED
AND STAND-UP
FOR THE FAMILY

FAMILYPOLICYWV.COM

Politics According to the Bible: Social Justice in an Unjust World

Friday, September 10, 2010
from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Huntington

Never has it been more necessary for Christians to understand and engage their responsibility to be active in the political process than now.

Judges are overriding the votes of millions of voters, lawmakers are ignoring their duty to protect the unborn, and students are being asked to change their religious convictions or leave school.

Yet, our Founders envisioned a land not only where religious freedom was a guaranteed liberty, but where Christians were involved in the process of government.

To help you advance, defend, and equip your family, the Family Policy Council of West Virginia (FPCWV) is proud to present Politics According to the Bible: Social Justice in an Unjust World.

This one day conference brings together some of the best and brightest theological minds in our nation to explore how Christians ought to engage in political debates and, more importantly, what role the Gospel plays in them.

Leading the discussions for this exciting conference will be:

Dr. Wayne Grudem, professor of Theology and Biblical Studies at Phoenix Seminary, and author of the forthcoming book, Politics According to the Bible: A Comprehensive Resource for Understanding Modern Political Issues in Light of Scripture.

Rev. Greg Gilbert, pastor and author of the book, What is the Gospel?

Wayne C. Barnard, Ph.D., of the International Justice Mission, a human rights agency that secures justice for victims of slavery, sexual exploitation, and other forms of violent oppression.

Erik Stanley, Esq., senior legal counsel to the Alliance Defense Fund and director of ADF's Pulpit Initiative to empower pastors to speak freely from their pulpit on all matters of life, including how Scripture and church teaching have application to candidates and elections.

As you can see we aren't messing around, we're bringing out the heavy hitters for this power-packed conference. We want to maximize every minute and make sure you walk away with a clear understanding of the role every believer is to play in his/her community.

The political process does not belong only to those in office; it belongs to each and every citizen. Have you thought about how will you steward the freedoms you have been given in this country?

The conference will begin at 9:00 a.m. (doors will open at 8:30 a.m.) and last until 2:00 p.m. on Friday, September 10th, 2010. We are grateful to the Christ Temple Church in Huntington, WV for opening their doors and facilities to us for this

Going to the WVU vs. Marshall football game anyway? Why not come out early for the Coal Bowl and join us at our conference from 9 until 2 on September 10 before you head to your tailgate that evening in Huntington?!

"POLITICS ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE: SOCIAL JUSTICE IN AN UNJUST WORLD."

September 10, 2010, 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM
Christ Temple Church 2400 Johnstown Road, Huntington, WV 25701

With Special Guest...
Dr. Wayne Grudem, theologian and author of Politics According to the Bible

Other confirmed speakers include...
Rev. Greg Gilbert, author of What is the Gospel?
Erik Stanley, Esq., senior legal counsel and head of the Alliance Defense Fund's Pulpit Initiative
Wayne C. Barnard, Ph.D., of the International Justice Mission

Registration Fee: $32/ individual. RSVP by September 3, 2010 at www.familypolicywv.com/conference or by calling 304-982-2803 event. They are located at 2400 Johnstown Rd., Huntington, WV 25701.

Registration for this outstanding conference is just $32 per person, and we have added an extra value. Along with your registration you will receive three books absolutely free!

Your complimentary copies of Wayne Grudem's Politics According to the Bible, Greg Gilbert's What is the Gospel?, and Alan Sears' novel, In Justice will be waiting for you the day of the conference. (You must be present the day of the conference to receive your free books.)

And, if you register before September 3, 2010, we will also include a copy of The Homosexual Agenda by Alan Sears and Craig Osten.

And, for subscribers to Engage only . . . families can come for the price of one person. An entire family can register for just $32 dollars. (Families registering together will receive only one set of books.)

To register online simply go to www.FamilyPolicyWV.com/conference.

To register by phone, and to register your family, please call 304-982-2803. Be sure to register before September 3, 2010.

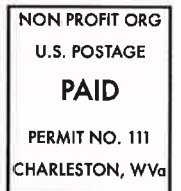

Don't miss this exciting, one-day conference that is sure to make you think, inspire you, and challenge you to steward the freedoms entrusted to your care.

If we don't want to see more freedoms and liberties disappear we must refuse to be silent and idle; we must take action. Start now by registering for Politics According to the Bible. ☺

Register now . . . www.FamilyPolicyWV.com/Conference

P.O. BOX 566
CHARLESTON, WV 25322

Current resident or:

h oad
25701